MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Eastern Region Policy Letter 10 – Serious Incident Reporting (SIR)

1. References.

- a. Cadet Command Policy Memorandum 9 – Serious Incident Reporting, 5 December 2003.
- b. AR 190-40, Serious Incident Report, 30 November 1993.

2. Purpose. Provide command policy for Serious Incident Reporting within Eastern Region.

3. Scope. This policy memorandum applies to personnel assigned or attached to Eastern Region.

4. Incidents that qualify as serious incidents are categorized/explained at enclosure 1. Instructions for each category follows:

a. Category A: Brigade Commanders will immediately call Commander, Eastern Region at (502) 624-1042/1446 (DSN 464); after duty hours call at (502) 942-4020 or (270) 352-8296. If the Region Commander cannot be contacted, contact the Chief of Staff, at (502) 624-2253 or (502) 624-3862. Immediately following this call, submit via email, a Serious Incident Report (SIR) prepared in the proper format (see encl 2 – SIR Format). Email a copy to all the following: stacy.overby@usacc.army.mil, tara.birkla@usacc.army.mil, patricia.klockow@usacc.army.mil and jeanie.nevitt@usacc.army.mil.

b. Category B and C: Submit SIR via email through the chain of command to Eastern Region within 24 hours of the incident prepared in the proper format (see encl 2 – SIR Format). Email a copy to all the following: stacy.overby@usacc.army.mil, tara.birkla@usacc.army.mil, patricia.klockow@usacc.army.mil and jeanie.nevitt@usacc.army.mil.

5. Eastern Region will assign each SIR a number when received and will submit all SIRs via email to Cadet Command. Note: Do not sent any SIR direct to US Army Cadet Command.

6. Serious Incident Reports (SIRs) will require an initial, interim (if required) and a final report (mandatory.)

REPORTABLE INCIDENTS (CONTINUED)

j. Environmental accidents or incidents that result in release of a hazardous substance, to include fuel, resulting in evacuation of facilities, injuries or deaths, or potential severe degradation of the environment. Examples include spills of petroleum, oil, and lubrication products into storm drains or waterways and releases of substances such as chlorine gas and other hazardous substances in amounts greater than the reportable quantity, as defined in federal, state, and local regulations.

k. Nuclear or chemical accidents or incidents.

l. Attempted suicide by a service member, dependent family member, or civilian employee.

m. Threats against the President, Vice President, other high government officials, or foreign dignitaries.

n. Riots, disturbances, or demonstrations when Army personnel are involved.

o. Terrorist activities, sabotage, and incidents initiated or sponsored by known terrorists, dissident groups, or criminal elements that occur on an installation, or incidents off the installation involving military personnel or property.

p. Maltreatment of soldiers, cadets or civilians to include assaults, abuse, or exploitation, where the offender is a trainer, supervisor, cadre-trainee relationship with the victim, regardless of whether they are members of the same organization. Instances of consensual sex are reportable if other considerations such as sexual harassment or adverse publicity are involved.

q. Actual or alleged child abuse that takes place within an Army organizational setting or facility (such as the youth activities center, child development center, medical treatment facility, etc. ) or Army sponsored or sanctioned activities (such as youth sports, field trips, or quarters-based family day care, etc.) This does not include incidents of child abuse with the family unit.

r. Significant violations of Army standards.

CATEGORY C: (REPORT THROUGH THE CHAIN OF COMMAND BY E-MAIL ATTACHMENT TO REGION HEADQUARTERS WITHIN 24 HOURS OF THE INCIDENT, USING ENLOSURE 2 FORMAT.) Category C Incidents are accidents or incidents that result in:

a. Incidents that result in Judicial and Non-judicial punishment, to include absent without leave.

b. Crimes not included in Category B, that involve Cadre or contracted SROTC Cadets (to include any accident or traffic citation involving alcohol that results in an arrest, charges, or adverse adjudication for Driving Under the Influence (DUI), Driving While Intoxicated (DWI), etc. Later court proceedings or action that results in deletion or alteration of the initial offense does not alleviate the requirement for a report e.g., DWI offense tat is subsequently reduced to a lesser conviction such as reckless driving, dismissal, set aside, sealed, expunged, etc.).
